

Welcome To

Live Video & Media
Production Company

Boulder, Colorado

Company Overview:

Around here, what we do is more than just business. Earth Coast is committed to working with mission-aligned organizations who are as dedicated to creating a better future as we are. As creators, we see every expression of digital media as a chance to share your story. In our productions, we bring to light our clients' brands and personalities through the power of video. Together we create culture-defining content and meet the growing need for visual storytelling across all screens.

What We Offer:

Earth Coast specializes in creative video production, virtual events & live broadcasting, as well as strategic video marketing. From ranching communities to enterprise companies, we understand how to create relevant video content that showcases your story and engages your audience. We have been creating and scaling exceptional media that educates, connects, and promotes regenerative practices throughout the global community for over 10 years. Our team of creatives and our expertise allow us to create high-quality, masterfully produced videos that will not only engage your audience but will position you for growth with media content for the future.

Meet The Earth Coast Team

Artem Nikulkov

Founder,
Technical Director

Artem Nikulkov is the Founder and CEO of Earth Coast Productions, a multimedia, video production, and live broadcasting production company. We are focused on digital storytelling to catalyze change in global sustainability, ecological stewardship, and community engagement. He is a native of Kyrgyzstan in Central Asia, and moved to the United States at the age of 12, quickly adapting to and adopting the grit and ethos of the American Dream. Artem resides in Colorado where you're just as likely to find him story-telling around a remote wilderness campfire as in a digital recording studio.

Rachel Fusco

Communications & Client
Success Manager

Rachel Fusco is our Communications & Client Success Manager, Assistant Producer, and Social Media Manager. Rachel has a background in Visual and Media Arts with a BA from Emerson College, as well as experience in Operations and Communications. An avid movie lover, coffee enthusiast, and dog-mom, you're likely to see her pups make an appearance in a meeting. Rachel brings the energy to keep projects moving forward.
